Dear Valued Customers:

Re: EOL of Noritake TFT display module

Noritake would like to inform you that the conventional version of our TFT display module, of which part number starts with GT + numeric characters, has been decided to be discontinued due to LCM were obsoleted. New version of module is made with newer TFT panel featuring better contrast ratio, response time and viewing angle. The specification of both versions is the same, only except for position of center of display area on 7 inches size module by shifting 0.24mm to the right and 0.11mm down. There is not position difference for 4.3 inch module.
