Product End-of-Life Notification

MultiConnect® Conduit™ Gateways (MTCDT-210-xx Models Only)

MultiConnect® mCard™ LoRa® Accessory Cards (v1.0 USB Models Only)

Replacement Models Available

Date: March 19, 2018

I. Summary

In September 2017, MultiTech announced new models of the MultiConnect® Conduit™ (MTCDT-24x-xx series) programmable gateway providing enhanced performance with Wi-Fi/BLE and GNSS, as well as enhanced MultiConnect® mCard™ v1.5 SPI LoRa® accessory cards. These new models are fully compatible with earlier generation devices. Applications will port seamlessly when transferred to the latest models with little or no impact, however developers using mLinux packet forwarder may require minor adjustments to firmware and are encouraged to contact MultiTech Technical Support for assistance.

With the release of these new programmable gateway and accessory card models, the status of the previous version of MultiConnect Conduit gateways (MTCDT-210-xx series) and MultiConnect mCard (MTAC-LORA-868 and MTAC-LORA-915) v1.0 USB LoRa® accessory cards is changing status from Near-End-of-Life (NEOL) to End-of-Life (EOL).

See Section II for a complete list of model numbers affected.
