3M™ DIN Sockets and Plugs

Issue Number: 734
Date: March 5, 2009

Product Change

In an effort to improve service to our global customers, we are transitioning to a new manufacturing location for 3M DIN 41612 compatible interconnect products. This transition will only affect the part numbers with a DIN prefix – it does not affect the 3M DIN 41612 connector part numbers 7xxx-xxxx, 6xxxx-xxxxx or 3xxx-xxxx. A complete list of part numbers impacted by this transition is available in the table below.

As part of this manufacturing transition, we have elected to discontinue some products, effective immediately. The products to be discontinued are listed in the attachment to this letter. For a majority of the discontinued parts, suggested alternatives are immediately available. The suggested alternative may deviate in terms of form, fit and function, but we have endeavored to suggest an alternative product that may be appropriate for your needs. Again, please refer to the below table to find the relevant alternative. Tech sheets of the replacement products are available on the 3M Interconnect Products website www.3m.com/interconnects and can be discussed with 3M's customer service and tech service personnel. Please carefully review the technical information including all specifications and, if necessary, request samples of the suggested alternative part so that you can ensure the alternative part is suitable for your application.

New Tech Sheets

New	Replaces	Product Name
TS2305	TS1132	DIN C-Form Plug, Right Angle, Solder Tail Termination
TS2306	TS1131	DIN C-Form Socket, Vertical, Solder Tail or Press-Fit Termination
TS2307	TS1133	DIN R-Form Plug, Vertical, Solder Tail or Press-Fit Termination
TS2308	TS1134	DIN R-Form Socket, Right Angle, Solder Tail Termination

3M will offer last time buys for the discontinued products until April 3, 2009. All purchase orders for the discontinued products will be non-cancelable and non-returnable. 3M will provide a delivery schedule for these purchase orders within 14 days of receiving the order. This delivery schedule will override the previously estimated lead time information. 3M reserves the right to allocate available manufacturing capacity in the event that we receive orders in excess of our ability to supply.
