Anti Fatigue Mats – Ribbed Pattern RoHS Compliant AFRB38 Series

Anti Fatigue Mats with Ribbed Pattern are designed to reduce the fatigue and lower the risk of injury to feet, knees, and lower back. Research shows the negative impact of standing on hard surfaces for a long time on a worker's health and productivity. The products pay for themselves through improved productivity. It combines the durability of vinyl foam cushion technology with a slip resistant top for safety in the workplace. This anti fatigue mat has moisture and stain resistant properties that cuts the cleaning and maintenance time.
