Description of termination:	Dear valuable customer,
	Starting in year 2023 more and more components will be declared as EOL by their supplier which are needed to produce the models mentioned in this notification above.
	Qualcomm informed us that the LTB of the MDM9230 is on June, 30th 2023.
	Since Thales wants to support you as best as we can, it is planned to create a related material stock at Thales.
	Thales is asking you to contribute to this strategy and provide a NCNR PO until the given LTB.
	For successor products, please contact your Sales representative.
	Thank you very much in advance.
