

Weatherproof Outdoor TV Cover for 80" Flat-Panel Televisions and Monitors

MODEL NUMBER: DM80COVER

Rugged polyester outdoor cover protects your mounted flat-screen television from weather-related damage and deterioration.

Features

Outdoor TV Cover Protects Your Flat-Screen Display from Water, Sun and Other Elements

Now that you have mounted an expensive television to the wall of your outdoor desk, balcony, patio or pool area, you need to keep it in perfect working condition. This Tripp Lite outdoor cover protects your TV against the hot sun, cool rain, cold snow and other elements. It also helps repel scratches, dents and dust to make sure the high-definition picture stays crisp and clear.

Durable Water-Resistant Fabric Provides Year-Round Protection

Rain, snow, sleet, water splashing from your backyard pool, even early morning dew are repelled by the rugged polyester fabric. The weatherproof cover wraps around the entire TV in seconds with a zipper and hook-and-loop fastener for supreme protection. The cover is easy to clean and easy to fold and store nearby while the display is in use. A built-in pocket safely stores the TV remote, cables and other necessary accessories.

Fits Most 80 in. Flat-Panel TVs and Monitors

The DM80COVER is ideal protection not only for displays used in digital signage applications, but also for televisions mounted on decks, balconies, patios and swimming pool areas.
